

Rotary Winterama raises funds for youth projects

The Port Elgin United Church will be hosting the Watoto Children's concert on Thursday, February 1st, from 7 to 9pm. To discover how you can experience their joyful voices, more details will be available on the website www.portelginunitedchurch.ca or their facebook page. You can also contact Claire Fowler at 519-832-9540.

Start the day, Sunday, February 4th from 10-1pm with breakfast at the Port Elgin Legion.

Winterama

On February 10th from 9am to 1pm at the Plex this year's Rotary Winterama will raise funds for youth in Grey-Bruce. The funds generated from this event stay local with 40 per cent of the funds raised going to the participating schools or groups for their specific programs, 30 per cent of funds raised going to the breakfast programs at participating area schools and the remainder going to local Rotary Club Youth Projects.

Head to the Port Elgin Plex and various recreation facilities in Town to participate in the activities. There will be a pizza party for participants in Rotary Hall upstairs at Plex at 11:30am. Collect pledges on your own or with your group. Kids' Groups who pledge receive funds back for their own projects. All other donations go directly to support kids projects such as School Breakfast Programs. For more information contact 519-797-5558.

Valentine's Tea

The Saugeen Memorial Hospital Auxiliary is hosting a Valentine's Tea and Sweets on February 10th from 2pm to 4pm at the St John's Anglican Church in Southampton. There will be a bake table along with some amazing draws. Advanced tickets are available at Logan's Men's Wear and Re/Max in Southampton and Cathy's Flowers in Port Elgin. Tickets will be available at the door as well. All funds raised will go to the Hospital.

On February 13th from 5pm to 7pm head over to the Pancake Supper at St. John's Anglican Church, 516 Mill Street in Port Elgin. The supper will feature fluffy pancakes, savoury sausages, real maple syrup, a beverage and fresh fruit salad. Everyone is welcome to attend. For more information contact Debbie at 519-832-9306.
