

Take a tour of Aunt Annie's Historic Métis home

August is another busy month in Saugeen Shores. Check out some of the events occurring in the next few weeks.

A special invite to everyone for the 159th Anniversary Service at the Dunblane Presbyterian Church located on River Road on Sunday, August 5th at 2:30pm. There will be a guest minister and special music.

The Saugeen Grannies, well known for their jewellery sales, are changing things up and will begin their 'Off the Wall' art sales beginning Saturday, August 11th. The sales will be held from 10am to 5pm at the Port Elgin Public Library and the Anglican Church in Southampton. Sales are cash or cheque only.

The Grannies are also looking for volunteers to help with the event. All funds are contributed to the Stephen Lewis Foundation's Grandmothers to Grandmothers Campaign; for the grandmothers in sub-Saharan Africa who have to raise their AIDS orphaned grandchildren. For more information and or to volunteer for the event, contact Margitta Lange at 519-797-2669, or saugeengrannies.org.

On Saturday, August 11th the Historic Saugeen Métis will be hosting their 10th Annual Rendezvous at Pioneer Park in Southampton.

In addition to the 10th year, they are also celebrating the 200th Anniversary of the Saugeen Ojibway Piché String Wampum Exchange. There will be special wampum themed displays and a wampum themed children's craft. The Rendezvous will be from 11am to 3pm. You will also enjoy Métis fiddle music and dancing featuring award winning old-time fiddler Shane Cook & The Woodchippers.

The event also hosts a luncheon of deep-fried lake whitefish on a bun and refreshments. There will also be vendors and Métis Cultural Demonstrations as well as Children's Crafts. HSM will be offering guided tours of Aunt Annie's Historic Métis home at 1pm and 2pm. Everyone is welcome and the admission is free. In case of rain, head to the Southampton Curling Club.

Just a reminder that the 35th annual Chantry Chinook Classic Salmon Derby is on until Sunday, August 12th.

Lifesaving sport athlete Carlin Reid is preparing to head to the Lifesaving World Championships in Australia this November to represent team Canada on the beach and in the pool.

As it is a self funded competition, Carlin is working to fundraise the $5,000 needed to participate. Sponsorship T-shirts are available for purchase as part of her fundraising. For more information contact Carlin at carlinreid1@gmail.com or 519-386-9235.

If you would like your event mentioned in a future article, contact me at 519-386-1400 or email tamriashton@bmts.com. It's a great way to get the word out to Bruce County!
